Death in High Heels

Set in 1937, "Death in High Heels" is a light-hearted and entertaining thriller adapted by Richard Harris.

It's a big day at Christophe et Cie, a small couture house off Regent Street where the frocks may be beautiful but the atmosphere is ugly! Behind the glamour and gossip of a 1930s fashion house secrets and lies are rife...

Mr Bevan is about to announce which of his staff he is sending to France to be general manager of a new branch in Deauville. Will it be the talented and elegant Miss Doon or the loyal and long-serving Miss Gregory? Perhaps senior saleswoman Irene or showroom manager Dorian will get the job?

Events take a dramatic turn over lunch when Miss Doon collapses and dies – poisoned! Enter the charming Inspector Charlesworth and his faithful Sergeant Wylet, who have a murder enquiry on their hands...

This is a brilliant adaptation of Christiana Brand's novel by the popular and well-respected writer Richard Harris. Probably best known for the stage comedies "Outside Edge" and "Stepping Out", he's also written for many television series over the years, including "A Touch of Frost", "The Darling Buds of May" and "The Avengers".
